

Reporters on the Scene With You

Lou Goggins talking to son, Dwight, in the aisle of the picnic area prior to the "Democrat" prize drawings . . . Edith Mace sitting between her son and daughter while Nell Callahan played the organ in the picnic area . . . Theresa Tagliareni with a friend in the picnic area prior to the kiddie drawing . . . Dr. Jim Morrison arriving in the picnic area looking for wife Ann and children . . . Peggy Parker joining husband Larry and Mrs. Lou McNary in the picnic prior to the drawing . . . Manuel Contreras and family in the picnic area for the drawing . . . Rev. Frank Norris eating an ear of corn while gazing at the crowd in the picnic area in search of his family . . . Gulnora Kergel, followed by son Bobby, entering the picnic area during the "Democrat" drawing . . . Jim Froman joining his wife Marie on a bench in the picnic area.

JoAnne Longee talking to friends in the Midway . . . Barbara Heidrick and Tom Fisk trying to win a stuffed animal . . . Jim Gallagher walking through the midway in a western outfit . . . Marti Rowland, Charlene Smith and Irene Bettencourt watching the boys go by . . . Mrs. Helen Mawson talking to Popo in front of the education building . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harold Franke talking to Zelda Means, who was enjoying the fair from a wheelchair . . . Mr. and Mrs. Harley Rominger and daughter, Kathleen, looking at the Maytag washers in the Karlstad display.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Duncan and children, Judy, Terry and David talking to Dirk Stam and daughter, Joan Chadaris, near the midway . . . Shari Gessler, Pat Paulson and Pearl Nakamura having a coke . . . Steve Cooper, Barbara Newton, Dany Newton standing in front of the laco booth with Mr. and Mrs. George Doering and daughter, Karen . . . Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hardman ordering at the VLS hotdog booth . . . Judy Newton and Linda Hotchkiss, wandering around the midway . . . Connie Brown, Linda Heidrick and Roberta McMills chatting in the main exhibit building . . . Fred Parker and Larry Hoppin making their way through the midway.

Sid Whitaker looking for his wife . . . Dick Tucker handing out "ride money" to his children in front of the midway . . . Shelly Hawk and Eldon Larson winning dishes . . . Mr. and Mrs. Russ Fiddymont eating hamburgers . . . Bill Turner of Superior Ambulance Service, the official fair ambulance, buying tacos for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Harmonson . . . Steve Fisher and Kerry Kirkland heading for the rides . . . Mr. and Mrs. John Siler and daughter, Vicky, of Robbins rested on the fairground benches . . . Gerald Mosher listening to his son, Jerry, and Bill and Malcolm Pearson playing folk songs in the picnic area . . . Smokey Murphy and Kathy Griffith tanding near the ferris wheel.

Pete Rast and Terry Wetzel in the midway . . . Janel Long, two 4-H record books in hand, hurrying toward the John Rogers hall with Ron Timothy . . . Mr. and Mrs. Howard Beeman and two of their children making their way toward the exit with a huge stuffed animal and an armful of flowers that they had just pked up in the floriculture building . . . Mike Michalak and Craig Riggins inching their way into the midway . . . Steve March looking for someone . . . Ralph Gay with manila folder just walking through the main gate . . . Robert Chamberlain buying a cup of coffee.

Ben Marcum talking with the Art Larson near the information booth . . . Jim Perdue and Charles Dolan filling orders at the Kiwanis club refreshment booth . . . Ed Goodykoontz being paged over the public address system by his son . . . Jan and Dick Bruga tying balloons for daughters, Kim and Leslie . . . Don Schultz watching the crowd pass by . . . Ed Sugars pushing one of his daughters in a stroller . . . Roscoe Hulse talking to friends . . . the Bud Fortnas with Tony Machado . . . Murray and Shirley Dixon pausing by the Springlake barrel booth . . . Fred Evieci munching on popcorn . . . John Hartmann passing by carrying three cups of coffee.

Dorothy and Sidney Woods talking to Harry Humphrey . . . Dr. John Soderstrom finally finding his children . . . Cam and Bob McGriff strolling down the main thoroughfare . . . the Bob Malcolms inching their way through the crowd . . . Bessie Burns taking in the fair with friends . . . Patricia Casalou with a handful of pictures of the Beatles . . . the junior Daryl Blevins family wondering which way to go . . . Hilton White heading over to the Springlake booth . . . the Bill Johnsons and their newly acquired stuffed poodle dog sitting on the grass . . . Lorraine Harmonson meeting friends as she passed by the cotton candy booth . . . the Laurence Peterson family heading home . . . the David Larsens leaving the fair with the Greg Rogers and children, Kandis and Loren, and talking about heading home for hot coffee . . . the Ed Casalou sitting down to rest for awhile . . . Joey Vejraska wondering why his dad didn't care to go on any more carnival rides.

Amy and Bill Fricke checking their childrens tickets during the prize drawings . . . Mavis Timothy, Dorothy Brannigan, and Betty Bickie with their children at the drawing . . . Shirley and Leroy Warnke sitting on the grass in the picnic area . . . The Jim Fraziers arriving on the scene . . . Bethel Griffith and son Bill leaving the