

Our Yolo Neighbors for County Fair

historical exhibit building . . . Donna Scarlett and son Bob in the picnic area . . . Bill and Doris Jansen talking to friends by the floriculture building . . . Donna and Paul Schulz leaving the floriculture exhibit . . . Jim and Margaret Shelly walking past the picnic area . . . Lowell Jahn and two sons leaving the drawing.

Irv Schafer and wife taking in the "Democrat" drawing . . . John Pasanen with young son in tow . . . Mark and Corrine Linder entering the floriculture exhibit . . . David Wyrsch and son leaving the flower display . . . Walt Blankenship stopping to say hello . . . Lela Kergel heading for the "old school house" . . . Jean Franke supervising the Soroptimist play area . . . Gene Garcias in the floriculture exhibit . . . Sid Epperson visiting with the Martin Huckes in front of the floriculture building . . . Celeste Wallace and Barbara Geer taking their children through the carnival . . . Pedro Savala entering the fairgrounds . . . Jack Horgen at his old stand parking cars for the American Legion . . . Jack and Betty Duntun taking their small daughter on the carnival kiddie rides . . . Al and Mel Lucero entering the main exhibit building.

The Bob Hawks and the Jim Balls taking in the fair together . . . Jack Dozier, Bill Griffith and Ray Penrose staffing the Babe Ruth ticket and souvenir booth set up on the fairgrounds . . . Shirley Oliver waiting for her children to get off a kiddie ride at the carnival . . . Doris Koster with her grandson at the carnival . . . Don Geer playing host in the art exhibit area . . . the Perry Skinners taking in the fair prior to a weekend at Lake Tahoe . . . Carol Humphrey getting ready to leave the fair and go home . . . The Butch Lamorees and sons talking to friends in front of the food booths . . . Lenore Sharp and Ennis Engstrom joining their husbands for dinner at the fair . . . Leroy and Jackie Leonard in two different places . . . Ed Dowell talking to Wilma and Laurence Wallace by the candy apple booth . . . Roger Hahn, Dave Winn and Craig Roberts working in the Boy's Athletic Society hot-dog booth . . . Dutch Rohwer checking on the boys . . . big Jim Anderson at the fair . . .

Mrs. Jack Richter checking results in the fair office . . . Bart Simpson looking for Dianne Gallardo . . . George Ortiz and Dave Lewis ordering tacos from Xavier Tafoya . . . Michele Matter and fiancé, Larry Nusz, walking along with a large lavender dog that they had just won . . . Mike Swett and Larry Galindo standing near the fun house.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heard and son, Stan, talking to friends near the commercial building . . . Mrs. Jack Johansen daughter, Louise, and friend, Marilyn Canepa, waiting for Jack near the information booth . . . Norman Hoffman and Cherry Lewis hurrying toward the main exhibit building . . . Brian Childers and Susan Pasanen heading home . . . Mrs. Bernie Gorman, Jr. and daughter, Eileen, listening to the numbers being called at the "Democrat" drawing . . . Mrs. Andrew Horgan with a couple of clowns in tow at the kiddies parade.

Charles Langston, Darlene Rominger and Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Aubuchon headed for the sheep pens . . . Jim Meadowcroft and Linda Sharp talking to Jacquie Marsden and Merlene Buck . . . Bob Alves and Craig Mayfield wondering where to go next . . . Bum Murphy looking for a lost friend in the midway . . . Bill Monroe and Bob Eiland holding purses for Dianne Carrion and Terry Carrere who were on the octopus.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Nakamura leaving the midway . . . Stan Brown looking for John Isgreen and Dave Buchignani . . . Jim Hughes, Gene Goffon, Bob Tuttle and Popo the Clown passing out prizes at the "Democrat" drawing . . . Bill Freeman and Vivian Graeser buying tickets for the carnival . . . Sally Fisk and Bob Scott winning stuffed dogs at the penny throw . . . Dave Tafoya giving a teddy bear to Lynne Brady . . . Mary Ann Lieberum and an out-of-town friend listening to a folk singing group.

Richard Deremo and Eleanor Gomez coming out of the midway . . . Nick Canevari and Georgene Pucci carrying stuffed animals . . . Fred Martin carrying a yard stick as he left the tractor displays . . . Don Hefner passing by the refreshment stands wearing an Orange county fair tie . . . Marsha Sheffield talking to one of the special security officers . . . Bob Williams walking through the midway with Pat Jones . . . Mr. and Mrs. Ed Shumaker entering the main exhibit with daughter, Janet . . . Mr. and Mrs. LaVern Oeste talking to the Joe Heidricks and the Darrel Romeys.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jones listening to the Swagmen . . . Pat Nichols and John Rademaker trying to find their car in the parking lot . . . Susan Schamberger and Robert Reed heading for the main exhibit building just before it closed for the night . . . Larry Means and daughter, Erin, making their way toward the midway . . . Carolyn Reiff and Shelia Justus deciding what they wanted to eat . . . Mr. and Mrs. Glen O'Brien and daughter, Morine, examining the carnival.

Vi Giesen and Eleanor Stockton walking past the education exhibit building . . . Malcolm Gray and Bill Marsden talking to Jim Whitehead . . . Maria Alonso waiting for someone at the information booth.